>From the Album "Yourself or Someone Like You" This is the solo I figured out for the song "Hang". It's not completely right, but this is the way I play it, and it doesn't sound bad. Listen to the CD for rythyms and stuff.

There's something missing around here but it sounds ok.

listen to CD for this part

this part may have something different $\qquad \qquad \text{but then just go on to a G}$ chord, then to the next verse: "The trouble understand"
