

Matt Corby - Wrong Man

Tom: Bb

Bb F D Am
You know you're talking to the wrong man, my friend
Bb F D
I'm still on the fence, wasting time in future tense
Am Bb
And all I came here for was finding love
F D
To help me understand my own
Am Bb
It's un- defendable

F D Am
And now you want to tell me you're devo- ted
Bb F D
When all the while you told me you don't know
Am Bb F
And now you want to come and sell me what I already own
D Am
And now you're trying to teach me what I already know

Bb F D Am
You know you're talking to the wrong man, my friend
Bb F D
When they bleed you out I won't blame you now
Am Bb
And all I came here for was finding love
F D
To help me understand my loss
Am Bb
Right, wrong, or legal

F D Am
And all the greatest hands that I would hold in mine
Bb F D
All the times I had to let them go
Am Bb F
And now they want to come and sell you what you already own
D Am
And now they're trying to teach you what you already know
Bb F D Am
You know you're talking to the wrong man, my friend
Bb F D
I'll still make amends, gaining time in present tense

Am Bb
And all I came here for was finding love
F D
To help me understand my own
Am Bb F D Am Bb F
And re- define it, oh

D
So the air I'll breathe in to drown in the sea
Am Bb
I've been beat up and did you know
F
You said you'd know

I get a little bit chewed up
D Am
I wouldn't if I had known
Bb
And seeing some part of you hopeful
F D Am
I know and I know you don't, see

I've been dizzy falling down degrees
Bb F D
I know you won't count on me

And the truth never bothers me
Am Bb
I know and I know you don't
F
Celebrated for your time awake
D Am Bb Bb F D Am Bb F D Am Bb F
I know you won't be sleeping now, oh

F D Am
You know you're talking to the wrong man, my friend
Bb F D
I'll still make amends, gaining time in present tense
Am Bb
And all I came here for was finding love
F D
To help me understand my own
Am Bb
And redefine it, oh
