

Matt Kennon - The Call

Tom: G
Intro:

Em G G
Today was gonna be the day
Em D G
He'd already wrote the note
Em G G
And parked that Chevrolet
C
At the end of that dead end road
Em G G Em G G
Had his finger on the trigger; just about to end everything
Em D G C D
He was taking one last long breath; when he heard his cell phone ring
C
And his best friend said man where you been?
G
We're headed down to the lake this weekend
C
You better not miss it 'cause buddy I swear
D
It won't be the same If you aint there
C
And i told that girl that you like so much
G
You were coming along and her eyes lit up
Am G C G
I better let you go man i really hope i didnt catch you in the middle of anything
Am G C D(ring out)
He said you kinda did but i don't mind at all
Intro: I'm glad you called
Em G G
In another town down the road
Em G G
In the backseat of a car
Em G C
Two eighteen year olds had let a kiss go too far
Em G G
He said how are we gonna have this child

Em G G
When were both headed off to school?
Em G G C D
He convinced her late one night there's only one thing to do
C
She was scared to death in that waiting room
G
When the nurse asked how far along are you
C D
She said 5 weeks and just about then her phone lit up
And his call came in
C
Saying baby i was wrong about everything
G
I've already bought you a diamond ring
Am G
we're gonna start a life, Would you be my wife?
C G
Boy or girl; pink or blue; yeah either way
Am G C
All she could say as she felt those tear drops fall
D() C G
I'm so glad you called
(C D)
C G
If someone you know is waiting on your mind
C G
And needs a friend on the other end of the line
Am G C
Don't hesitate what you say may seem so small
C
But who knows
D
They might be glad you called
C D G
So make the call
C G
Make that call
(C G)
