

Matt Maher - What a Friend

Tom: E

Ohh ohh ohh ohh

Everybody has trials and temptations

Ohh ohh

Everybody knows heart break isolation

Ohh ohh

But we can lay our burdens down

Lay our burdens down

What a friend we have in jesus

East to west my sins are gone

I see grace on every horizon

And forever and ever his heart is my

Home

Ohh ohh

Ohh ohh

Everybody has fears, everybody got worries

Ohh ohh

Everybody knows sorrow, devastation

Ohh ohh

But we can lay our burdens down

Lay our burdens down

What a friend we have in jesus

East to west my sins are gone

I see grace on every horizon

And forever and ever his heart is my

Home

( Dbm B )

No more betrayal

For he is faithful

He fills me up and my cup runneth over

No more betrayal

For he is faithful

How he has proven it over and over

No more betrayal

What a friend we have in jesus

East to west my sins are gone

I see grace on every horizon

And forever and ever his heart is my

Home

What a friend we have in jesus

East to west my sins are gone

I see grace on every horizon

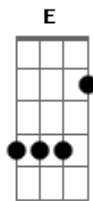

And forever and ever his heart is my

Home

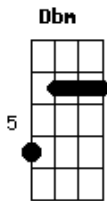

Forever and ever his heart is my

Home
