

Matt Maltese - Oldest Trick In The Book

tom:

Intro: C G Em A
C G Em A

[Primeira Parte]

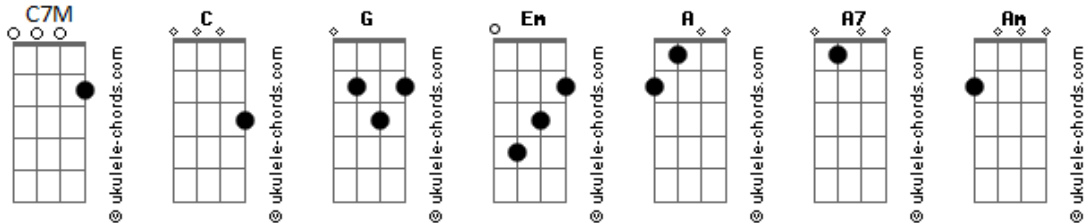

C G
I cannot follow us like a persistent worm
Em A7
That's not a thing that I can do
C G
You are a lake of love, a raging genius
Em A7
And you don't want the things I do

[Refrão]

Am Em
The first time we met up, asked you in for coffee
C G
You said, "That's the oldest trick in the book"
Am Em
And when I think about you often, I picture you smoking
C G
When I used the oldest trick in the book

[Segunda Parte]

Acordes

C7M G
Cute if not pitiful, so unoriginal
Em A7
And yet, it's how it all begins
C G
If I'm a lake, then you, you're a deep diver
Em A7
And who can say if that's enough to win?

[Refrão]

Am Em
The first time we met up, asked you in for coffee
C G
You said, "That's the oldest trick in the book"
Am Em
And when I think about you often, I picture you smoking
C G
When I used the oldest trick in the book

[Final] C G Em A

Am Em
And when I think about you often, I picture you smoking
C G
When I used the oldest trick in the book