

Matthew Koma - One Night

```
Chew my love, under your tongue
               tom:
                                                                                 Dm
Intro: C Dm Am G
                                                            Like it's your bubble gum
                                                            You're blowing bubbles. Till the taste is gone
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                           G
                                                            You're coming over for the night
         Dm
You think you're the new sexy
          Dm
                                                             Just one night, one night, one night
In a white Mercedes that bends me to the grave
                                                             C Dm Am
C Dm Am
                                                             Chew my love, under your tongue
You make casual messy
                                                                           C
                                                             Like it's your bubble gum
 C Dm Am
And all materials posses you like a slave
                                                                         G
                                                             Just spit my out when it becomes more than fun
You're custom made
                                                            Cause I'm comin over
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                             For the night, just one night, one night
Don't take this swim, for more than it is
It's one night, one night, one night
                                                            Now, I'll pull you in close
                                                             It's a sweet and sour high
        Dm
              Am
Chew my love, under your tongue
                                                            When you promise not to try
Like it's your bubble gum
                                                             If I promise that I'd lie
           G
You're blowing bubbles. Till the taste is gone
                                                            We can drink the punch for this one last time
You're coming over for the night
                                                            Just one more last time
Just one night, one night, one night
                                                             [Refrão]
        Dm
              Am
Chew my love, under your tongue
                                                                     Dm
                                                                           Am
                                                             Chew my love, under your tongue
Like it's your bubble gum
                                                                           C
        G
                                                             Like it's your bubble gum
Just spit my out when it becomes more than fun
                                                             You're blowing bubbles. Till the taste is gone
Cause I'm comin over
                                                             You're coming over for the night
For the night, just one night, one night
                                                             Just one night, one night, one night
                                                                    Dm
                                                                           Am
[Segunda Parte]
                                                             Chew my love, under your tongue
                                                                           C
                                                             Like it's your bubble gum
Conversation is violent
                                                                                             C
                                                                         G
                                                            Just spit my out when it becomes more than fun
              Dm
Baby you're too digital, arbitrated physical
                                                             Cause I'm comin over
          Dm
                     Am
But keep me under your ceiling
                                                             For the night, just one night, one night
                     Dm
Cause your concrete Is chippin in, crumbling like grease on
                                                            One night, one night, one night
                                                             [Final]
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                             ( C Dm )
Don't take this swim, for more than it is
                                                            Just spit me out when it becomes more than fun
It's one night, one night, one night
                                                             ( Am G )
[Refrão]
Acordes
```

