

Maylene and the Sons of Disaster - Drought Of '85

Tom: Bb

Intro 2x: Am F C G

Am F
What if this all was the end
C G
And everything you've known was wrong
Am F
What if we'd all been condensed
C E
There was still room for the lost

F
What if heaven's a mystery
Am
And god stopped believing
E Am
Would we belong here anymore?
G F
And if no one had answers
Am
Love had no meaning
E Am
Then what the hell are we fighting for?
G F
Will we all just be strangers
Ab Am F C G
Knocking on empty doors?

Am F
Was it a part of the plan
C G
To be the anchor of men?
Am F

What if the pages of time
C E
Were full of fiction and lies?

F
What if heaven's a mystery
Am
And god stopped believing
E Am
Would we belong here anymore?
G F
And if no one had answers
Am
Love had no meaning
E Am
Then what the hell are we fighting for?
G F
Will we all just be strangers
Ab Cm Eb Bb F Ab C G Am
Knocking on empty doors?

F
What if heaven's a mystery
Am
And god stopped believing
E Am
Would we belong here anymore?
G F
And if no one had answers
Am
Love had no meaning
E Am
Then what the hell are we fighting for?
G F
Will we all just be strangers

Acordes

