

Mayra Andrade - 96 Days

tom: Bb

I've got no reason to feel so blue
 Woke up this morning with coffee and sugar
 It's 96 days since I've thought of you
 I've just got this cough
 And I feel a little rough
 I've been smoking too much these days

I have been eating well
 You would be pleased to know
 Windows are clean
 Though there's not much to see

So I go down to the street
 Where the cars are like riverboats
 Inching along as I light up again
 Light up another one
 This one's for you and your memory
 I guess that you've kicked it
 But left me the habit
 I've been smoking too much these days
