

McFly - Little Joanna

Tom: G

G Little Joanna's got big blue eyes F
G Coconut cream and coffee colored thighs F
C D
I could die lying in her arms
Fm C
where castles are made of sand
E Am
We start to dance D7
G But only the music is bleeding when crickets replace the band F
C G C
She will always be my sunkissed trampoline,
F C
She goes up and down in my heart,
G C
Turned into jelly beans
F C D7 F
And I'm starting to believe that danger's never near,
G C
When Joanna is here.
C , B , Bb , A
G , Ab , A
A G
Little Joanna's like a lazerbeam sky.
A G
Her gluteus maximus like a firefly
D E
And That's why I'm kissaphobic
Gm D Gb Bm
Well cellulite dreams are made, like lemonade,
E7
A
But when the shivers are salty and seafoam's the colour of space.
D A D
She will always be my sunkissed trampoline,
G D
She goes up and down in my heart,

A D
Turned into jelly beans
G D E7 G
And I'm starting to believe that danger's never near,
A Bm
When Joanna is here.
G
God, I love Joanna
Gb D
But she don't understand much
G C
I love it when our hands touch
A B
Knowing that I'm near
G
Apple-flavored lip gloss
Gb D
Gillies wear a necklace
G C
Feeling young and reckless
A E A
When Joanna is here
A G
Little Joanna's got big blue eyes
D E
I could die lying in her arms
Gm D
where castles are made of sand
Gb Bm
We start to dance
E7 G
But only the music is bleeding when crickets replace the band
Gb B Gb B
She will always be my sunkissed trampoline,
E B
She goes up and down in my heart,
Gb B
Turned into jelly beans
E B Db7 E
Gb
And I'm starting to believe that danger's never near,
B
When Joanna is here
Gb , B , E , B (repete até o fim)

Acordes

