Was it love that we fell into that summer?
When did we ever change, love? When did we ever change?
Did we know that it wouldn't last much longer?
When did we ever change, love? When did we ever change?
If you were me
You would understand the reasons I can't fight it
I can't make myself be everything you need
And with one word I watched our moments go up in fire, go up in fire
Up in fire, up in fire
We're going up in fire, up in fire
We're going up in fire
Was it love that we left behind that summer?
When did we ever change, love? When did we ever change?
I was wrong, we're so different from each other
When did we ever change, love? When did we ever change?
If I was you
I would understand the reasons you don't buy it
I won't tell you what I think you wanna hear

And with one word I watched our moments go up in fire, go up in fire
I watched your eyes grow cold
And then it wasn't you
I made a choice and there was nothing you could do
When did we ever change? When did we ever change?
When did we ever change? When did we ever, ever
When did we ever change? When did we ever change?
When did we ever change? When did we ever, ever change?
I only wish that I could be there when you find it
I could see with my own eyes what we could've been
And then thousands of my burdens would be lighter
But it feels like I'm just losing you again
'Cause with one word I watched our moments go up in fire, go up in fire
Up in fire, up in fire
We're going up in fire
Up in fire, up in fire
We're going up in fire, up in fire
We're going up in fire
