

Melanie C - Who I Am

tom:
               \mathsf{Cm}
Intro: Cm Eb Gm F
I was building my armour, so I could fit in
        Eb
To avoid any drama, I would shut my mouth, I hid (hid)
             Eb Gm
I was lost in the ruins of who I thought I should be
      Eb
                        Gm
I forgot I was human, I must set my body free (free)
They don't recognize when I'm being honest
'Cause I wasn't before
No, they may not like it but I'm not sorry
That's who I am
No, I've got nothing left to hide, hide
I'm comfortable with what?s inside-side (that's who I am)
You think you've known me all this time, time
But the real me is mine (that's who I am)
            Cm
That's who I am
When I look in the mirror, I finally like what I see
There's been so many changes
I accept they're a part of me
They don't recognize when I'm being honest
Because I wasn't before
No, they may not like it but I'm not sorry (I'm not sorry)

            Fb
I'm ready to drop my armour
It will make me stronger
Drop my armour
That's who I am
           Eb
I'm ready to drop my armour
It will make me stronger
Drop my armour
That's who I am
