

Melanie Martinez - A Million Men

tom:
C

Miss Maggie was way too young to understand, Am F C
G why she got thrown into someone else's hands, Am
F why she woke up to strange men, C G
Am they tore her to pieces F
and she couldn't comprehend, C
G why she was locked up in a basement,
Am filled with men.
Should've gone to school, F
C instead she did them. G

Am
Don't touch me,
F I'm fragile,
C I'm bitter in my heart. G

Am
Mama sold me,
F for candy,
C and I was ruined from the start. G

Am F
Why'd you have to sell me to those mean old men?
C They cut me up in places
G I don't even understand.
Am It's normalcy to me but,
F how will my friends understand?
C I'm five years old,
G sleepin' with a million men Am F C G

Am F C
All grown up and her body has decayed,
G all those promiscuous games she had to play, Am F
C she skipped the jungle, jungle-gym phase. G

Am F C
She's tryin' to look at things in a bright way,
G sees the light peekin' through the end of the hallway, Am
F No, She's tryin' tryin' tryin' to escape G

Am
I'm runnin'
F full force dear
C but it's hard when you're bones. G
Am I'm weak kneed but I'm flyin' F
C out of this hell hole. G

Am F
Why'd you have to sell me to those mean old men?
C They cut me up in places
G I don't even understand.
Am It's normalcy to me but
F how will my friends understand?
C I'm ten years old,
G runnin' from a million men Am F C G
A million men A F C G

Am F C G
Finally, the light is comin' close,
Am F
no turning back,
C G
run full force.
Am F C G
Angels swoop down and grab me,
Am F
and now I'm safe away,
C G
from the million men who raised me.

Am F
Why'd you have to sell me to those mean old men?
C They cut me up in places
G I don't even understand.
Am It's normalcy to me but,
F how will my boyfriend understand?
C I'm seventeen,
G with a history,
Am
of a million men
F Men
A million men C
G Men
(Am F C G)x2

Am
A million men,
F
A million men,
C
A million,
A million,
G men.

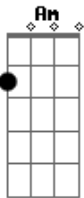

Am
A million men,
F
A million men,
C
A million,
A million,
G men.

Am
A million men...
