

Melanie Martinez - Alphabet Boy

Tom: C

Always aiming paper airplanes at me when you're around

You build me up like building blocks just so you can bring me down

You can crush my candy cane but you'll never catch me cry

If you dangle that diploma and I deck you, don't be surprised

I know my ABC's, yet you keep teaching me

I say, fuck your degree, alphabet boy

You think you're smarter than me with all your bad poetry

Fuck all your ABC's, alphabet boy

I'm not a little kid now

Watch me get big now

Spell my name on the fridge now

With all your alphabet toys

You won the spelling bee now

But are you smarter than me now?

You're the prince of the playground

Little alphabet boy

Am C

Apples aren't an always appropriate apologies

Em Am

Butterscotch and bubblegum drops are bittersweet to me

Am C

You call me a child while you keep counting all your coins

Em

But you're not my daddy and I'm not your dolly

Am

And your dictionary's destroyed

Am C

I know my ABC's, yet you keep teaching me
