

Melanie Martinez - The Last Two People On Earth

tom:
A

I saw the news on TV
Before the screen cut to all black
I saw your face next to me
We had a conjoined heart attack

'Cause you're the only one, baby
Who makes me wet like I'm waterboarded
So deep it could kill me
And right now, we could both afford it

Everybody knows it, might as well come closer
Heart to heart and sweaty, baby, everything's decaying
Everybody's dying, you're the one I'm holding, explosions

Fuck me like we're the last two people on Earth, Earth, Earth
Fuck me like we're the last two people on Earth, Earth, Earth
Fuck me like we're the last two people on?

While everyone's out praying
Your tongue in my mouth is my God
Like pyromaniacs burning
You are the flame that gets me off

'Cause you're the only one, baby

Who makes me hot like a volcano
Catastrophic orgasm
That can wipe out the whole nation
Everybody knows it, might as well come closer
Heart to heart and sweaty, baby, everything's decaying
Everybody's dying, you're the one I'm holding, explosions
Fuck me like we're the last two people on Earth, Earth, Earth
Fuck me like we're the last two people on Earth, Earth, Earth
Fuck me like we're the last two people on?

Ooh-ooh-ooh
The buildings are burning, my body is yearning
Ooh-ooh-ooh

Can we die together? And is there a heaven?
Everybody knows it, others won't come closer
Fuck me like we're the last two people on?
Everybody's dying, you're the one I'm holding, explosions

Fuck me like we're the last two people on Earth, Earth, Earth
Fuck me like we're the last two people on Earth, Earth, Earth
Fuck me like we're the last two people on?
