Intro: A
                                                                You've been riding two wheelers all your life
                                                                It's not like I'm asking to be your wife
Riding down, riding down
                                                                                Gbm
               AM7
                                                                I wanna make you mine, but that's hard to say
My hand on your seat
                                                                Is this coming off in a cheesy way?
The whole way round
I carry band-aids on me now
                                                                I love everything you do
For when your soft hands
                                                                When you call me fucking dumb for the stupid shit I do
Hit the jagged ground
                                                                I wanna ride my bike with you
Wheels aren't even touching the ground
                                                                Fully undressed, no training wheels left for you
Scared to take them off, but they're so warm now
                                                                I'll pull them off for you

Promise I won't push you straight to the dirt

                                              D (PARADA )
If you promise me, you'll take them off first
                                                                When you call me fucking dumb for the stupid shit I do

Letting go, letting go
