1. Maria was born in the country, she loved her homeland.

Maria was from a poor family, for their girl they had greater plans.

Across the sea, not yet twenty, sailed our Maria,

a man to see, perhaps marry, dreams our Maria,
this was to be eventually for our Maria.

2. Maria made plans for the future, she had sons
to her man.

Maria grew sad as the years passed, she did not understand.

You must believe me, though its not easy, trust in me,
my life's been wasted, there's nothing sacred I can see.
Though we're together, it seems we've never known the way,
these lives we started, now broken hearted everyday.

3. Maria works in the factory, she makes shoes
for the man,
Maria lives for her family, now she does what she can.

Hold on to me, hold on to me, Maria !
For this was to be a tragedy for our Maria.

Oh Maria, don't you cry ! Oh Maria, dry your eyes
?..
