

Men I Trust - Unlike Anything

tom:
Ebm (forma dos acordes no tom de Dm)
 Capotraste na 1ª casa

Everything is pale and shining here
 The sun's biting my forehead
 Oh, water shines too
 I fear it could swallow me whole
 The constant wind
 Washes everything near
 So, I forgot what they said
 Reeds glistening with dew
 So sleek
 I feel far from the shoals
 When my hand's gone, you'll be the same
 You're unlike anything I know
 You're still the one that can't be tamed
 Never convinced you to follow

Sheltered so you can't hear the blame
 Oh, tell me how far should I go
 I could be somebody else
 And you'll meet me like a new day
 You wished for, with all things new Brighter, and the one
 I would follow like the child I was before
 I was before
 Before I knew
 When my hand's gone, you'll be the same
 You're unlike anything I know
 You're still the one that can't be tamed
 Never convinced you to follow
 Sheltered so you can't hear the blame
 Oh, tell me how far should I go
