

Meredith Andrews - The River

tom:

Intro:

[Primeira Parte]

Am G C F7M
Everyone is broken and in need of a Saviour
Am G C F7M
So He came and was broken for the mocker, for the shamed
Am G C F7M
Still our eyes are blinded by the culture, by the lies
Am G C F7M
We can't see that were filthy, we're fallen and so dry

[Pré-Refrão]

(Can be strummed)

G Am7 F
But He invites us, can you hear him say
G Am7 C F
He invites us, hear Him call your name

[Refrão]

(I'd strum this)

Am C
Welcome to the river
G Dm
Come drink, come away, come find your very life
Am C G
Welcome to the river of God
F7M G Am
Where your brokenness is washed away

[Segunda Parte]

Am G C C F7M G
Everywhere is the sorrow and the pain of empty living
Am G C C
F7M
You can see it, look in their eyes, all the hopelessness of the world
Am G C C F7M G
But look closer, He is right there in the midst of every fear
Am G C C F7M

Living water is the offer, restoration is the call

[Pré-Refrão]

(Same as before)

G Am7 F
And He invites us, can you hear Him say
G Am7 C F
He invites us, hear Him call your name

[Refrão]

Am C G
Welcome to the river of God
F Am G C F F2
Where your brokenness is washed away

Am G C F F
Find your healing, find your freedom, in the river of God
Am G C F F
Find your healing and find your freedom, in the river of God
Am G C F
Your healing here, your freedom here, in the river of God
Am G C F
Your healing here, your freedom here, in the river of God

[Refrão]
