Let's break away tonight (tonight)
 Runaway like it doesn't even matter
 (Matter, matter)
 Take me for a ride (ride, ride)
 Make me feel better
 (Feel better, feel better)

We're making our escape
 Step on the pedal like it
 Don't cost a dollar (dollar, dollar)
 We're driving in the rain (rain, rain)
 Let's wash away our pain
 As we're screaming runner runner

Kiss my face
 Every time we touch
 You're rushing through my veins
 Every piece of me wants you here
 To stay
 We don't really care if
 No one's listening
 As we're screaming runner runner
 I wanna be dangerous
 I'm taking a risk on us
 Wherever our love falls
 We stand tall
 As we're screaming runner runner
 Watching the miles fly by
 We don't even have to try
 We're writing our own rules
 We can't lose
 As we're screaming runner runner

Never wanna hide (hide)
 From the moment that you taste a little freedom
 (Little freedom, little freedom)
 More than just a hike (hike, hike)
 It gives you something to believe in (Believe in, believe in)

I put my heart into the clouds
 And I could see that I was heading right to you
 We are never coming down (down, down)
 I know you feel the same
 As we're screaming runner runner

Kiss my face
 Every time we touch
 You're rushing through my veins
 Every piece of me wants you here
 To stay
 We don't really care if
 No one's listening
 As we're screaming runner runner
 I wanna be dangerous
 I'm taking a risk on us
 Wherever our love falls
 We stand tall
 As we're screaming runner, runner
 Watching the miles fly by
 We don't even have to try
 We're writing our own rules
 We can't lose
