Intro: Am C F Em G

I can't believe you called Veronica
That's wrong, my name is actually Vanessa
I can't believe you said the wrong twin
Said the wrong twin
Oh I can't believe it
Oh I can't believe it right now

Gave him a second chance, even though he called me the wrong name
He said he's sorry, "You and your sister look the same" la la la
Don't be sad la la la (ohh ohh)
Went on another date, we ran into one of his friends
He introduced me and said the wrong name once again no, no, no
I have to go, go, go, go

I can't believe you called Veronica
That's wrong, my name is actually Vanessa
I can't believe you said the wrong twin
Said the wrong twin
Oh I can't believe it
Oh I can't believe it
When he called me Veronica
You should've seen his face when he knew he messed up
I can't believe he said the wrong twin
Said the wrong twin
Oh I can't believe it

Oh can someone get my name right
Known you for two years, we talk like almost every day
Don't know how you feel, but got me feeling some type of way la la la
But I was wondering if you could tell me and my sister apart (break)
I brought my sister with me, I'm testing you
Which one is which please tell me...

No, my name is actually Veronica
You just called my sister's name, Vanessa
I can't believe you said the wrong twin
Said the wrong twin
Oh I can't believe it
Ooh
No, my name is actually Veronica
You just called my sister's name, Vanessa
I can't believe you said the wrong twin
Said the wrong twin
Oh I can't believe it
Ooh can someone get my name right

All these years everyone gets it wrong (and how wrong)
And it's not even that hard at all (ooh)
I can't believe that you said the wrong twin
Said the wrong twin, said the wrong twin
Wrong twin
Wrong twin (oh he said the wrong twin)
Wrong twin
Oh I can't believe it
Oh can someone get my name right
