

Metro Station - She Likes Girls

tom:

G

[Primeira Parte]

I like you girl, but you don't seem excited
 Since she walked in where has your mind been?
 You talking to me, but thinking of her
 Your secret is safe, I won't say a word

[Pré-Refrão]

We should slow down, I was moving too quick
 You don't say you love me, you just bite your lip
 I can read the signals from a mile away
 I know she is on your mind, and that's okay

[Refrão]

I think she likes girls
 Every time she flaunts
 You wanna get real and tell me
 What you want
 I think she likes girls
 I think she likes girls
 I think she likes girls
 I can't make her stop
 She wants to kiss her lips
 but she's scared to get caught
 I think she likes girls
 I think she likes girls

She likes girls, girls, girls
 She likes girls, girls, girls
 She likes girls, girls, girls
 I think she likes girls

[Segunda Parte]

If you're craving her body you shouldn't hide it
 You told her the truth the flame was ignited
 Lost in the night you're touching her skin
 Leaving the club, the kissing begins

[Pré-Refrão]

We should slow down, I was moving too quick
 You don't say you love me, you just bite your lip

I can read the signals from a mile away
 I know she is on your mind, and that's okay

[Refrão]

I think she likes girls
 Every time she flaunts
 You wanna get real and tell me
 What you want
 I think she likes girls
 I think she likes girls
 I can't make her stop

She likes girls, girls, girls
 She likes girls, girls, girls
 She likes girls, girls, girls

[Ponte]

She's feeling lonely, feeling in
 She met her on the dancefloor
 She knew she had to have more
 She's feeling faded, it's not pretend
 She knew she had to have more
 She's feeling lonely, feeling in
 She knew she had to have more
 She's feeling faded, it's not pretend
 She knew she had to have more

[Refrão]

I think she likes girls
 Every time she flaunts
 You wanna get real and tell me
 What you want

I think she likes girls
 I think she likes girls
 I can't make her stop
 I think she likes girls
 I think she likes girls
 Every time she flaunts
 You wanna get real and tell me
 What you want

I think she likes girls
 I can't make her stop
 She likes girls, girls, girls
 She likes girls, girls, girls
 She likes girls, girls, girls
