

Michael Jackson - Heal the World

```
In my heart I feel you are all my brothers.
Intro: A D
                                                                             Bm7
                                                          Create a world with no fear, together we'll cry happy tears,
Verso 1:
                                                                                Bm7
                                                                                                Dbm7
                      Bm7
                                Dbm7
                                                          see the nations turn their swords into plowshares.
There's a place in your heart and I know that it is love,
                                                              Bm7 Dbm7
