 As we walked into the room,
 There were faces C
 Staring, glaring, tearing through me D Em

Someone said welcome to your doom

Then they smiled with eyes C
 That looked as if they knew me D Em

This is scaring me

(E)
 We walked up the stairs
 Still concealing gloom
 There were two girls sitting in my room
 She walked up to my face
 And said this is the place,
 You said meet you right here at noon
