Michael Jackson - Little Susie

Tom: F
Intro: Am E7 (4x)

Am Dm Am
Somebody killed Little Susie
E7 F
The girl with the tune
E7sus E7
Who sings in the daytime at noon
Am Dm
She was there screaming
Am E7 F
Beating her voice in her doom
E7sus E7
But nobody came to her soon
Am Dm
A fall down the stairs
Am
Her dress torn
E7 F
Oh, the blood in her hair
E7sus E7
A mystery so sullen in air

Am E7
She lie there so tenderly
C Dm
Fashioned so slenderly
Am Dm
Lift her with care
E7 Am
Oh, the blood in her hair

(Am E7) (4x)

Am Dm Am
Everyone came to see
E7 F
The girl that now is dead
E7sus E7
So blind stare the eyes in her head
Am Dm Am
And suddenly a voice from the crowd said
E7 F
This girl lived in vain
E7sus E7
Her face bear such agony, such strain
Am Dm Am
But only the man from next door
E7 F
Knew Little Susie, now he cried
As he reached down
E7sus E7
To close Susie's eyes

Am E7
She lie there so tenderly
C Dm
Fashioned so slenderly
Am Dm
Lift her with care
E7 Am
Oh, the blood in her hair~

(Am E7) (4x)

Dm Gm
It was all for God's sake
Gm A
For her singing the tune
Gm A
For someone to feel her despair
Dm Gm Gm
To be damned to know hoping is dead
A
And you're doomed
Gm
Then to scream out
E
And nobody's there
She knew no one cared

Am Dm
Father left home
Am
Poor mother died
E7 F
Leaving Susie alone
E7sus E7
Grandfather's soul too had flown
Am Dm
No one to care
Am
Just to love her
E7 F
How much can one bear
E7sus E7
Neglecting the needs in her prayers
Am Dm
Neglection can kill
Am E7
Like a knife in your soul
F
Oh, it will
E7sus E7
Little Susie fought so hard to live

Am E7
She lie there so tenderly
C Dm
Fashioned so slenderly
Am Dm
Lift her with care
E7 Am
So young and so fair
