

Michael Jackson - Superfly Sister

```
[Chorus]
                                                                                           Bbadd9 Cm
               tom:
                                                              Love ain't what it used to be
               Fh
       Ab 4-6-5-5-4-4
                                                                                            Bhadd9 Cm
                                                              That is what they're tellin' me
Db x-4-3-1-1-1
F 1-3-x-x-x - Play As Ghost Notes
Intro: Fm Bbadd9 Cm
                                                              Push it in, stick it out
                                                                                            Bhadd9 Cm
                                                              That ain't what it's all about (0h)
[Chorus]
                             Bbadd9 Cm
                                                                                                         Bhadd9
Love ain't what it used to be
                                                              Sister says she love him some (She's doin' it, she's doin' it)
                               Bbadd9 Cm
                                                                                    Bbadd9 Cm
That is what they're tellin' me
                                                              Got his Jimmy on the run
                                                                                        Bbadd9 Cm
                        Bbadd9 Cm
Push it in, stick it out
                                                              Mother's preachin' Abraham
That ain't what it's all about (0h)
                                                              Brothers they don't give a damn (0h)
                                                              [Solo]
[Verse 1]
          Fm
                    Bbadd9 Cm
                                                              Am Bb Eb Ab
He wanna do somethin' keen to you
                                                              Am Bb Eb Db
                         Bbadd9
                Fm
He wanna wrap his arms all around ya, girl
                                                              [Chorus]
                            Fm
                                 Bbadd9
                                                                                            Bbadd9 Cm
He wanna shake it up, shake it down, doin' it right
                                                              Johnny's beggin' pretty please
                       Fm Bbadd9 Cm
He wanna jump back, half flap, doin' it right
                                                              Keep the brother on his knees
                         Fm Bbadd9
                                                                                    Bbadd9 Cm
He wanna lay you down, turn it up, shakin' it loose
                                                              Susie likes to agitate
                       Fm Bbadd9 Cm
He wanna fly high, nigh high, baby for you'se
                                                              Get the boy and make him wait (0h)
                          Fm Bbadd9 Cm
                                                                                        Bhadd9 Cm
He wanna motormouth, float around, baby the back
                                                              Sister's marries to a hood (Hoo!) (Oh)
                     Bb7
                                  Ab
He wanna shake it up, shake it down, movin' 'round ha-ha
                                                              Saying that she got it good (Hoo!)
                                                                                 Bbadd9 Cm
[Chorus]
                                                              Holy Mary Mercy me (Hee!)
                             Bbadd9 Cm
                                                                                               Bbadd9 Cm Fb
Love ain't what it used to be
                                                              I can't believe the things I see
                                                                                            Bbadd9 Cm
That is what they're tellin' me
                                                              Thinkin' that they got it made (Hoo!)
                        Bbadd9 Cm
                                                                                               Bbadd9 Cm
Push it in, stick it out
                                                              They doin' what they used to hate
                              Bhadd9 Cm
That ain't what it's all about (0h)
                                                              Push it in, stick it out
                     Bbadd9 Cm
                                                                                            Bbadd9 Cm
                                                              Fm
                                                              That ain't what it's all about
Susie like to agitate
                             Bbadd9 Cm
                                                                                           Bbadd9 Cm
Get the boy and make him wait
                                                              Love ain't what it used to be
                        Bbadd9 Cm
Mother's preachin' Abraham
                                                              That is what they're tellin' me
                               Bhadd9 Cm Fb
                                                                                      Bbadd9 Cm
                                                              Push it in, stick it out
Brothers they don't give a damn (0h)
                                                                                            Bbadd9 Cm
                                                              That ain't what it's all about (0h)
[Verse 2]
                    Bbadd9 Cm
           Fm
                                                                                   Bbadd9 Cm
Fm
                                                              Fm
He wanna do somethin' keen to you
                                                              Susie like to agitate
                Fm
                         Bbadd9
He wanna wrap his arms all around ya, girl
                                                              Get the boy and make him wait
                                  Bbadd9
                          Fm
                                                                                       Bbadd9 Cm
He wanna glue it up, keep it high, deep in the night
                                                              Mother's preachin' Abraham
                                                                                             Bbadd9 Cm Eb Fm Fm Eb Bbadd9
                     Fm Bbadd9 Cm
He wanna eyeball, get hard, playin' it right
                         Fm
                                    Bbadd9
                                                              Brothers they don't give a damn (0h)
He wanna turn the key, hurt the sheets, move to the left [Outro]
                       Fm Bbadd9
                                      Cm
He wanna hot scrub, hot love, makin' it wet
                           Bbadd9
                                                              Holy Mary mercy me (Dah, hoo! Dah)
                       Fm
He wanna give hot, jump shot, move to the left
                  B<sub>b</sub>7
                             Ab
                                      Bb7
                                                              I can't believe the things I see (Dah, mmmmh, ah)
He wanna time bar, slam dunk, ha-ha-ha ah
                                                              Push it in, stick it out (Stick it out)
[Interlude]
                                                              That ain?t what it's all about
Acordes
```

