

Michael Kiske - The King Of It All

tom:

Intro: G

C I've been had once again G
C The old betrayer did win
D Felt small I thought to give in F
D Em And now I sleep with my sin

You say I just fly F
On wings I have borrowed D
I'm loaded to try F
To shoot you with my sorrow D

G I'm alone tonight C
G No one there in sight C
Am And I die to be the king of it all D
Am To become the laugh of all rise and fall F
D Yes so tall
C You'll be the one that will bleed G
C If I fall over my feet G
D The love you need you must breed F
D Em The hate we build cuts so deep
F If I could I sure would
D Be all that you needed F

It would all feel so good
But it doesn't come easy D

G I'm alone tonight C
G No one there in sight C
Am And I die to be the king of it all D
Am To become the laugh of all rise and fall F
D Yes so tall
C Your common sense is no defense sometimes G
C And if it ends all what it meant stays mine! D

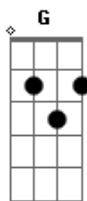

(C G C G)
(D F D Em)

E You say I just fly
D On wings I have borrowed
F I'm loaded to try
D To shoot you with my sorrow

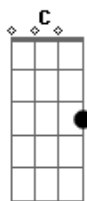

G I'm alone tonight C
G No one there in sight C
Am And I die to be the king of it all D
Am To become the laugh of all rise and fall F
D Yes so tall
C You'll be the one that will bleed G
C If I fall over my feet G
D The love you need you must breed F
D Em The hate we build cuts so deep
F If I could I sure would
D Be all that you needed F

[Final] C G C
G C G

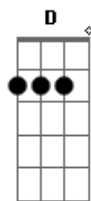

Acordes

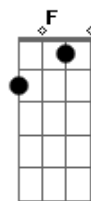

© ukulele-chords.com

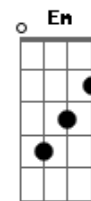

© ukulele-chords.com

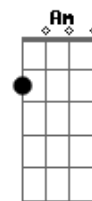

© ukulele-chords.com

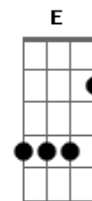

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com