

Michal Leah - Bitter

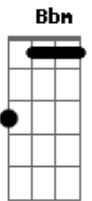

tom:
 You told me meet you at the movies but you didn't come
 I hate you
 I fucking hate you
 You told me your mama knew about me but she doesn't
 Oh, I hate you
 I fucking hate you
 I wish I could turn back time
 I wish you would leave my mind
 But I'm still sleeping in your sweater
 Regardless of the weather, oh
 You told me she was just a friend, but I knew better
 Oh, I hate you (I sort of fucking hate you)
 'Cause all good things come to an end
 But this one was missing that
 You were the salt that I mistook for sugar
 I wish I would've known 'cause you ruined my drink
 Now I got a bad taste for other lovers
 Left me sick and alone, pour you out in the sink
 You told me that you wouldn't leave
 Guess I shouldn't have believed it

Oh, believed it
 Your favorite day was Friday
 But I only saw you on the weekends
 Guess I wasn't your favorite
 I wish I could hurt you back
 I wish I could call your dad
 Tell him he should've raised you better
 Maybe we could be forever
 But now that I think about it
 I rather spend my time
 Writing bad reviews online
 About you
 'Cause all good things come to an end
 But this one was missing that
 You were the salt that I mistook for sugar
 I wish I would've known 'cause you ruined my drink
 Now I got a bad taste for other lovers
 Left me sick and alone, pour you out in the sink
 You were the salt that I mistook for sugar
 I wish I would've known 'cause you ruined my drink
 Now I got a bad taste for other lovers
 Left me sick and alone, pour you out in the sink
