

Michal Leah - Think I'm Gonna Love You (feat. Caleb Hearn)

tom:
 Sleeping in, late again
 But it's perfect timing
 Staying up, just to talk
 It's getting hard to hide it
 We've both been hurt enough and
 We know we shouldn't rush it
 It might sound dumb, but I'm pretty sure

I think I'm gonna love you
 I think I'm gonna bring you home
 And I think every little moment
 Will lead us right where we should go
 I think we're gonna learn how
 Forever's gonna feel, I know
 You can't make every wish come true
 But I think I'm gonna love you
 I think I'm gonna love you, mm

I've never been this innocent
 But I could get used to it
 In the kitchen, the way you listen
 The way you pull me in
 I should probably have my doubts
 I shouldn't say all this out loud

Acordes

But you took those words right out my mouth
 I know this much right now
 I think I'm gonna love you
 I think I'm gonna bring you home
 And I think every little moment
 Will lead us right where we should go
 I think we're gonna learn how
 Forever's gonna feel, I know
 You can't make every wish come true
 But I think I'm gonna love you
 I think I'm gonna love you, mm
 Maybe this light'll fade
 We'll grow up and walk away
 But I would bet it all on us today
 I think I'm gonna love you
 I think I'm gonna bring you home
 And I think every little moment
 Will lead us right where we should go
 I think we're gonna learn how
 Forever's gonna feel, I know
 You can't make every wish come true
 But I Will Spend My Whole Life Trying To
 But I think I'm gonna love you
