

Mike Andersen - Over You

```
And they turn out the lights
                                                                    Db
                        tom:
                                                       And though my body, though my body shakes
             Gbm (forma dos acordes no tom de Fm )
Capostraste na 1º casa
Intro: Cm7 Fm
                                                       [Refrão 2]
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               Bbm7 Cm7 Fm7
                                                       I'm not jealous
  Fb Fm7
                                                              Bbm7 Cm7 Fm7
I followed you
                                                       I'm not jealous
          C7
                                                              Bbm7
Through the pouring rain
                                                       I'm not jealous, baby
Eb Fm7
                                                                     Fm7
                                                       Cm7
                                                          Don't get me wrong
So it's true
                C7 Fm7
    Db
                                                           Db Eb
That you're back with him again
                                                       I'm a grown up man
                                                       And I'm over you
[Pré-Refrão]
            Fm7
    Db Eb
                                                       [Solo] Eb Fm Db Eb F
Well, I know it was me who walked out
                                                            Eb Fm Db C7 F
       Fm Fm
Now you're free but I doubt
                                                       [Pré-Refrão]
                                                                   Fm7
      Db
                                                             Db Eb
He can ease, ease your pain
                                                       And I try not to go crazy inside
                                                             Fm Fm
[Refrão 1]
                                                       And they turn out the lights
                                                                   Db
          Bbm7 Cm7 Fm7
                                                       And though my body, my whole body shakes
But I'm not jealous
      Bbm7 Cm7 Fm7
                                                       [Refrão 3]
I'm not jealous, no no
                                                                  Bbm7 Cm7 Fm7
       Bbm7
I'm not jealous
                                                       But I'm not jealous
                                                              Bbm7 Cm7 Fm7
  Don't get me wrong
                                                       I'm not jealous, no no
                                                                          Bbm7
   Db Fb
                                                                                 Cm7
I'm a grown up man
                                                       Do you really think I care
                                                             Fm7 Db Eb
And I'm over you
                                                       What you do now baby
                                                             Fm7
[Segunda Parte]
                                                       I'm way over you
   Fb
                                                                  Bbm7 Cm7 Fm7
I'm standing here
                                                       But I'm not jealous
Db C7
                                                             Bbm7 Cm7 Fm7
                                                       I'm not jealous
 Watching you through the drapes
         Fm7
                                                               Bbm7
 Then he appears
                                                       I'm not jealous, baby
           C7
                                                          Don't get me wrong
I recognize his doggone face
                                                          Db Eb
                                                       I'm a grown up man
[Pre-Refrão]
     Db Eb
               Fm7
And I try not to go crazy inside
                                                       And I'm over you
     Fm
               Fm
```

Acordes

