                                                               scene
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               Paint the city like Picasso would've done in his dreams
                          (Fm)
Today you woke up and you told me that you wanted to cry
                                                               Do the things that we were way too terrified of before
The sky was fallin' like a comet on the Fourth of July
                                                               Oh-oh, I wanna take you to Nirvana, we can take it too far
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                               Hit the bottom of the bottle and forget who we are
Dm F
Baby, you've been thinkin' 'bout the future like it's already
                                                               Hold me close, you know tomorrow isn't comin' for sure [Final]
Show me how you'd hold me if tomorrow wasn't comin' for sure
                                                               Let's pretend it's not the end of the world

[Segunda Parte]
                                    (Em )
Let's spend the dollars you've been savin' on a Mercedes-Benz
                                                               It's not the end (like the end of the world)
