

Miley Cyrus - Inspired

Tom: G And I hope you feel inspired Am G C Oh, I hope you feel inspired I'm writing down my dreams, all I'd like to see Starting with the bees or else they're gonna die How can we escape all the fear and all the hate? There won't be no trees or air for us to breathe Is anyone watching us down here? I'll start feeling mad, but then I feel inspired Death is life, it's not a curse Thinking about the days coming home with dirty feet Reminds us of time and what it's worth From playing with my dad all day in the creek To make the most out of it while we're here He somehow has a way of knowing what to say We are meant for more So when I'm feeling sad, he makes me feel inspired Pull the handle on the door that opens up to change We are meant for more I know that sounds so strange, to think Am We are meant for more Pull the handle on the door that opens up to change I know that sounds so strange, to think Pull the handle on the door that opens up to change We are meant for more I know that sounds so strange Pull the handle on the door that opens up to change 'Cause you've always felt so small, but know you aren't at all I know that sounds so strange $% \left\{ 1,2,\ldots ,n\right\} =\left\{ 1,2,\ldots ,n\right\} =\left\{$ And I hope you feel inspired G Am G C 'Cause you've always felt so small, but know you aren't at all Oh, I hope you feel inspired
