Where I end up, I don't really care
I told myself I closed that door
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     I'm out of my mind, but still
But I'm right back here again

I was talking to you
   'Fore I realized this madness
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        I'm holding on like a rolling stone
                Before the sadness
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      A thousand miles from anywhere
Oh, I pick up the phone
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        [Final] G
And I call back home
