With my words across your youre making up stories of your own.
              D Little bits of white paper, in pockets deeper than you
           D
You painted black upon the whitest lies
youve seen them fall, you have seen them rise,
you painted black upon the whitest lies, lies, your lies.
          D
Push play, stop rewind
you drown your heroes in red wine.
Push play, stop rewind, you drown your heroes in red
wine.

Close enough to see your hands sneaking out of these embrace paper thin whispering
