

Joni Mitchell - Just Like This Train

Tom: F

(intro) (A Bb B C Db D C A Bb B C )

I'm al-ways running behind the time
G7sus4 C

Just like this train

Shaking into town

With the brakes com-plai-ning

I used to count lovers like railroad cars
I counted them on my side

Late-ly I don't count on noth-ing

I just let things slide

The station mas-ter's shuffling cards

Box cars are bang-ing in the yards

Jealous lovin'll make you crazy
If you can't find your goodness

'Cause you lost your heart

(A Bb B C Db D C A Bb B C )

I went look-ing for a cause
Or a strong cat without claws

Or any reason to re- -sume

And I found this empty seat

In this crowded waiting room

Ev-erybody waiting

Old man sleeping on his bags
Women with that teased-up kind of hair

Kids with the jitters in their legs

And those wide, wide open stares

And the kids got Cokes and chocolate bars

There's a thin man smo-king a fat cigar

Jealous lovin'll make you crazy

If you can't find your goodness

'Cause you lost your heart

What are you gonna do now?

You've got no one to give your love to

(A Bb B C Db D C A Bb B C )

Well, I've got this berth
And this roll-down blind

I've got this fold-up sink

And these rocks and cactuses go-ing by

And a bottle of German wine to drink

Settle down into the clickety-clack
With the clouds and the stars to read

Dream-ing of the pleasure I'm gon-na have

Watching your hair-line recede
My vain darling

Watching your hair and clouds and stars

I'm rocking away in a sleeping car

This jealous lov-ing's bound to make me cra-zy

I can't find my good-ness, I lost my heart

Oh, sour grapes, because I lost my heart

(A Bb B C Db D C A Bb B C )
