

Mitski - A Burning Hill

tom:

Intro: D Bm

[Primeira Parte]

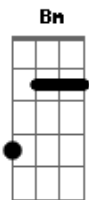

Today I will wear my white button-down
I'm tired of wanting more
I think I'm finally worn
For you have a way of promising things
And I've been a forest fire
I am a forest fire
And I am the fire and I am the forest

And I am a witness watching it
I stand in a valley watching it
And you are not there at all

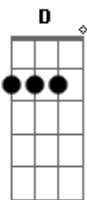

[Segunda Parte]

So today I will wear my white button-down
I can at least be neat
Walk out and be seen as clean
And I'll go to work and I'll go to sleep
And I'll love the littler things
I'll love some littler things
