

Mitski - Dan The Dancer

tom:
Am

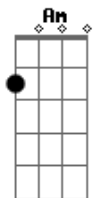

Intro: B

[Verse]

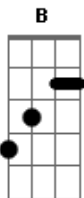

C Dan had very long limbs E
C From leading day to day E
C Hanging onto a cliff E
C That stretched him everyday E
C And when she'd ask to hold hands E
C He would smile and E
C Let one of his hands go E
C His whole life in one hand E
C His whole life E
C B
C And when he'd say goodnight and E
C Leave her doorstep E
C He'd use his last strength E
C To wave back E
C And once back in his room B
C Once back in his room B
C He'd return his waving hand E
C E

Back to its cliff
C He liked her more than life itself B
C I'm sure B
C B
Am B C
G Ab Am B
C 'Cause Dan had never danced E
C Outside of his room E
C When no one was home and he would E
C Start to hear the door E
C So when he moved with you B
And felt his body let go B
C Of course you couldn't know B
B C It was you and you alone B
C That he had shown his bedroom dancer to B
C Shown his bedroom dancer to B
C Shown his bedroom dancer to B
C Shown his bedroom dancer to B
C Shown his bedroom dancer to B
C Shown his bedroom dancer to B
Am B
C And he would never tell you that it was his first time

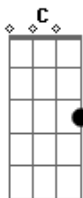

Acordes

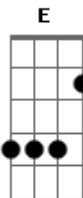

© ukulele-chords.com

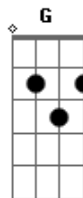

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com