            C
I remember waiting for the sun to rise
            F
I remember where we went wrong that night
            C
I remember way too much
            F
I remember way too much

              C
I remember waiting for the sun to rise
            F
I remember where we went wrong that night
            C
I remember way too much
            F
I remember way too much

Ay
C
I remember when we wished we were older
F
I remember how we felt late October
C
"I'll always keep you warm" that's what I told her
F
"I'll always keep you warm", that's what I told her
C
I remember wishing on a four leaf clover
F
And writing your name all over my folders
C
"I'll always be around" that's what I told her
F
"I'll always be around" that's what I told her

C                                  Em
I remember waiting for the sun to rise
F
I remember where we went wrong that night
C               Em
I remember way too much

I remember way too much

            C
I remember waiting for the sun to rise
            F
I remember where we went wrong that night
            C
I remember way too much
```

```
            F
I remember way too much
            C
I remember waiting for the sun to rise
            F
I remember where we went wrong that night
            C
I remember way too much
            F
I remember way too much

       C
And you know I could never forget
          F
All the trouble me and you got in
          C
In the summer of 2006
            F
Baby you know I could never forget
C
I remember sneaking out and coming over
F
I remember freaking out, I wasn't sober
C
"I hope I end up with you" is what I told her
F
"I'm gonna end up with you" is what I told her

                    C
I remember waiting for the sun to rise
                F
I remember where we went wrong that night
            C
I remember way too much
                F
I remember way too much

                C
I remember waiting for the sun to rise
                F
I remember where we went wrong that night
                C
I remember way too much
                F
I remember way too much
                C
I remember waiting for the sun to rise
                F
I remember where we went wrong that night
            C
I remember way too much
                F
I remember way too much

                    C
I remember way too much
F
    Is what, is what I told her
