

Mod Sun - Stay Away (feat. Machine Gun Kelly)

tom:
Capo: 3ª casa (forma dos acordes no tom de Am)

Stay away from me, away from me
And I'll stay away from you
Stay away from me, away from me
And I'll stay away from you
I went through hell and back
With both your hands wrapped around my neck
I walked through the flames and
Just my luck, I was soaked in gasoline
And people like to change with the seasons
And they don't give me nothin' to believe in Cleaning up is such a dirty business
Now you're just like all the other bitches
Stay away from me, away from me
And I'll stay away from you
Stay away from me, away from me
And I'll stay away from you
And if I see your ass in public
I swear to God that it's on sight

So stay away from me, away from me
And I'll stay away from you (and I'll stay away from you)
Damn, 'cause I can't help but want you more
The less that you want me
Yeah, but when I'm gone on tour
It seems like that's when you want me
I tell myself, I tell myself don't tell her nothin'
Now, I can't help myself, I'm in hell myself
Look where you left me
'Cause I can't help but want you more the less that you want me
'Cause when I'm gone on tour, it seems like that's when you want me
I tell myself, I tell myself don't tell her nothing
'Cause I fuck up when I'm fucked up, and I'm not sorry
Stay away from me, away from me
And I'll stay away from you
Stay away from me, away from me
And I'll stay away from you
And if I see your ass in public
I swear to God that it's on sight
So stay away from me, away from me
And I'll stay away from you (and I'll stay away from you)
