

Moon Walker - New God

tom:
Intro: Bm E D Bm E D

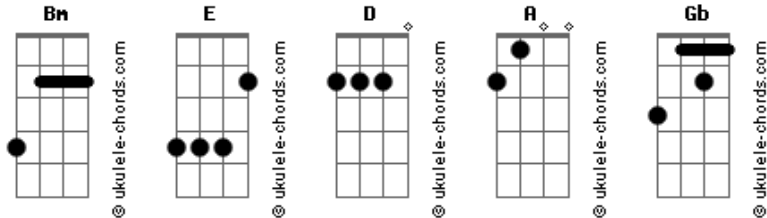

[Verso]

Bm
I stood at the altar and worshiped a stranger
E D
Baptized in the water and absolved of my pain
Bm
I thought you were holy I thought you could save me
E D
I gave you my future and you don't know my name
Bm
Guess this is the thanks that I get
E D
You cast me out and you throw me away
Bm
Everything must come to an end
E D
You've already died twice you can still be replaced

[Refrão]

Bm
We need a new god we need a savior
E D
Maybe a new start isn't the worst idea
Bm
We need a new god a great entertainer
E D
We need an angel or something that looks like it
A Bm

Acordes

New god someone who can save us from the way we are A
We need a new start
Bm Gb
We'll blame all of our problems on the old one
Bm E D Bm E D
New God

[Verso]

Bm
Raise your boys to be sons and your girls to be daughters
E D
To walk in a straight line and do as they're told
Bm
Tell them they're worth only as much as they're making
E D
That no one will love them if they don't fit the mold
