Intro: C Em

[Primeira Parte]

Someone's always first to go, that's what they do
They start out with the media and the news
They target all the people with different views
And if you're not the next in line, you will be soon
'Cause everybody pays the price, and you will too
Whether you're the radical or the fool
You might laugh when they come for me, but when they do
No one will be left to care when it's you

[Refrão]

And you might not b? next
But your day is gonna come
You don't have to gu?ss
It's as good as done

[Interlúdio] C Em C Em

[Segunda Parte]

Whether it's the immigrants or the Jews
There's always an enemy for them to choose
It starts off with the socialists, and the schools
Until one day the enemy starts to look like you
And then you cry for help, but no one's there
'Cause there's nobody with a spine left for you to scare
And when they come for you, you better pray
That when you go to lick the boot, they don't put it in your face

[Refrão]

You might not be next

But your day is gonna come
You don't have to guess
It's as good as done

[Pós-Refrão]

Now everybody else is gone
There's no one else for you to blame
When there's nobody left
You're next
You're next

[Interlúdio] C Em C Em

[Terceira Parte]

No spine, no soul, no shame, no reason
Didn't need 'em, didn't know it, didn't see it, don't believe it
Didn't matter when it happened 'cause it wasn't to me
I'll live dumb and die as a casualty

[Refrão]

You might not be next
But your day is gonna come (But your day is gonna come)
You don't have to guess (You'll never have to guess)
It's as good as done

[Pós-Refrão]

Now everybody else is gone
There's no one else for you to blame
There's nobody left
You're next
You're next

[Final]

You're next
You're next
