It was 6 AM, the beginning of the morning
E7M
when I finally laid in my bed
D7M
Outside, the cold froze the dew on my window
E7M
the heater is broken but I just don't care
D7M
High with the stars till the last moonlight thread
E7M
A sight to behold through a silvering path
D7M
Feet off the ground, the gravity is so kind
E7M
Taking dreamers like me for a soft ride
D7M
The nighty breeze shakes the canopy of trees

E7M
The leaves are on the ground scattered randomly
D7M
The animals howls, the creatures of the night
E7M
The phases of the moon ruling the tides
Bm7
A boat in the ocean sailing to nowhere
E7M
Something inside tells me not to be scared
Bm7
My demons are gone, just for a while
E7M
They might be back with the first rays of light

D7M
What more could I ever want?
D7M
What more could I ever want?
Bm7
What more could I ever want?
Bm7
What more could I ever want?

E7M want?
