Never happy, not satisfied
Always complains for nothing
Hopes and dreams are fading away
It's not hard to figure it out
There's no doubt, you'll find a way
Live the moment, each and every day

[Refrão]

I don't know why
I cannot see the beauty in front of me
I cannot
I don't know why
I cannot see the beauty in front of me in front of me

Now I see here

It's always been there
People like their simple things
Live the moment, each and every day

[Refrão]

I don't know why
I cannot see the beauty in front of me
I cannot
I don't know why
I cannot see the beauty in front of me in front of me

Is it there?

Is it right there?

Right in front of you

Right in front of you

This is what you've been looking for

For a long, long time

Make it real, make it right now

Make it right now

You've got to live it now
