Intro: C C F F

[Primeira Parte]

Sat down on a barstool, like a dern fool
'Cause she walked out again
Bartender said I got you
Yeah, 'cause I too, have been in your boots, my friend
Opened up back in '85
And got me over my first wife
Been staying busy since the first night
It's a story old as time

[Refrão]

God made the world
In seven short days
He said it was good, I bet it was great
Then God made a man, and man got lonely
He said please Lord if I could only
Have an angel to hold in my arms
So God made a girl, his best work of art
Oh, but he didn't make no place to go
When she breaks your heart

So man made a bar

[Segunda Parte]

For some guys it's a good time
The half price, half dozen buckets of beer
Some say it's a cover band
That's a cover man
I know why they're here

Didn't go the way he planned it
Damn the devil did some damage
[Refrão]

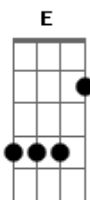

God made the world
In seven short days
He said it was good, I bet it was great
Then God made a man, and man got lonely
He said please Lord if I could only
Have an angel to hold in my arms
So God made a girl, his best work of art
Oh, but he didn't make no place to go
When she breaks your heart
So man made a bar
Yeaaaah, man made a bar

[Break]

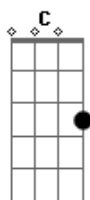

And sometimes an angel falls too hard
Loses more than just a piece of her heart
And she needs a place to go and make a brand new start
[Refrão]

God made the world
In seven short days
He said it was good, I bet it was great
Then God made a man, and man got lonely
He said please Lord if I could only
Have an angel to hold in my arms
So God made a girl, his best work of art
Oh, but he didn't make no place to go
When she breaks your heart
So man made a bar, (man made a bar)
Yeaaaah, man made a bar
