I wipe the void from my eyes
The darkness passed away
Where ever I look I see...
You
The light of another day

I let your warmth embrace me
It forms an auriol of light
In which evil cannot trace me
Returning to the dead of night

Solo:

You the one

My life has just begun
In my dreams
I was told you'd come
The Sun

An eclipse that blocks my sight
It makes my past surround me
It puts me back into the night

Free myself
I yearn for you
