

Morrissey - Glamorous Glue Intro

Tom: G

I noticed there are only bass tabs for this song. So I discovered the opening and first verse for Glamorous Glue one day while i was messing around. Here it is:

Bass plays the opening, and after the drums come in, you play the guitar.
Intro: distortion.

Verse

First day with the jar you find...

Everyone lies....

First day with the jar you find...

Everyone lies, nobody minds, everyone lies.
(play between minds and everyone)

I havent worked out the Chorus yet, but after the chorus, you play the verse again.
all I have.

If anyone wants to help me with the chorus, send me an email, at OutlawKingX@
