

Morrissey - I Know Very Well How I Got My Name

```
Tom: G
                                                                who's come and gone
  transcribed By Marvin Hernandez
                                                                D Bm x2
April 30 2005
intro: repeated among verses try to hammer the notes finger Verse 2:
pick them
                                                                When thirteen years old,
                                                                who died his hair gold?
riff number II two play on Bm chord
                                                                oh I know very well
Intro: D Bm x2
                                                                I don't need to be told
Verse 1:
A child in a curious phase
                                                                Chorus:
A man with sullen ways
                                                                You think you were my first love
oh I know very well how I got my name
                                                                You think you were my first love
D Em
                                                                but you're wrong
Chorus:
                                                                you were the only one
You think you were my first love
                                                                who's come and gone
You think you were my first love d dsus2 Bm x2
but you're wrong
you were the only one
                                                                you were the only one who's gone
```

Acordes

