

Mother Mother - Calm Me Down

Your body, ooh, soothe my soul, so beautiful
                            tom:
                                                                                        G
                                                                                Am
                                                                Calm me down, Baby, your teeth, your mouth, and me
Calm me down, calm me down, I'm inside out and upside down
                                                                Happily, married, baby, calm me right down
Hold my head in your hands, to calm me down, get it out
                                                                Use your body, use it to put me to sleep, your body, ooh
Get it out, oh, oh, get it out, use your teeth and your mouth
                                                                Use your body, use it to put me to sleep
                                 Em
Cut in me to pull it out, oh no, I'm aroused now, I'm aroused
                                                                Your body, ooh
You better calm me down, oh, calm me down
                                                                [Solo] E B C G Am F
Use your teeth and your mouth
                                                                Soothe my soul, so beautiful
Use your body, use it to put me to sleep
                                                                ( G Em Am )
( G Em Am )
Your body, ooh, soothe my soul, so beautiful
All my life, oh, oh, all my life, I hurt myself and cut myself I wanna be a good man, don't wanna be no has been
                                      Fm
Put myself through living hell, all so I could feel what I
                                                                I wanna be a real friend, don't wanna break when I bend
                                                                I wanna be a sweet son, don't wanna fight with my mom
                                                                                          G
When you took me in absolve my sins
                                                                I wanna a be no seeker, I wanna scream eureka
With your flesh and skin, use your skin
                                                                I wanna scream eureka, I wanna scream eureka, Ah
Use your body, use it to put me to sleep
