

Mvxwl - Purple Afternoon

tom:

Intro: F Am F Bb

[Primeira Parte]

Like a firebird burnt out

Coz' I'm so burnt out

Don't know who I am

You go down so smooth

For my soul, you're the fruit

Screaming out god damn

I can't seem to get away from you

I'm followed around

everything slowed down

My mama said I should watch out for you

Since the tenth grade when I started acting a fool

[Refrão]

And now I'm leaning on you

Purple afternoon

The sun goes down way too soon

When I'm thinking of you

And now I'm leaning on you

Purple afternoon

Why'd you have to leave so soon

So soon

[Segunda Parte]

And now I'm burnt to hell

Can't forget the way you smell

Can't remember how far I fell into your arms at night

Started habits that I can't stop for my life

[Refrão]

And now I'm leaning on you

Purple afternoon

The sun goes down way too soon

When I'm thinking of you

[Ponte]

And now I can't find a way to hide

Coz' what I'm hiding from's inside

And now I'm drinking, smoking, popping, thinking, repeating like the seasons

[Refrão]

And now I'm leaning on you

Purple afternoon

The sun goes down way too soon

When I'm thinking of you

And now I'm leaning on you

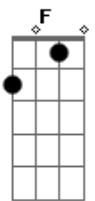

Purple afternoon

Why'd you have to leave so soon

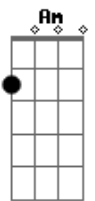

So soon

[Final] F Am F Bb
