Riff 1: Intro

Riff 2
It's the tearing sound of love-notes
Casting out the gray stained windows
And the view outside is sterile
But I'm only two cubes down
I'll photocopy all the things that we could be
If you took the time to notice me
But you can't now, I don't blame you
B
And it's not your fault that no one ever does

Bb
But you don't work here anymore
B Bb Ab Riff 3
Its just a vacant 3 by 4
B Bb
And they might fill your place
B Db Eb Riff 3
A temporary stand-in for your face
B Bb
It happens all the time
B Bb Ab Riff 3
And I can't help but think I'll die alone

Riff 2

So I'll spend my time with strangers
A condition that is terminal
In this water-cooler romance
And its coming to a close
We could be in the park and dancing by a tree
Kicking over blades we see
Or a dark beach with a black view B
As pin-pricks in the velvet catch our fall

Bb

(B Gb Ab)
Sometimes I think I'll die alone, sometimes I think
I'll die alone
Sometimes I think I'll die alone, live and breathe and die alone
Sometimes I think I'll die alone, sometimes I think
I'll die alone
Sometimes I think I'll die alone, I'd think I'd love to die alone
