Intro: Dbm A B Ab
                                                           Lay still like the dead
                                                           From the razor to the rosary
           Dbm
For what you did to me
                                                                         В
                                                           We could lose ourselves
            Α
And what I'll do to you
                                                                         Ab
                                                           And paint these walls in pitchfork red
